ABOUT OUR EVENT

LEADER:

Darrell C. Claytor, CFP

Securities America, Inc.,

a Registered Broker/Dealer,
Member FINRA/SIPC

"Providing lifetime financial services to lifetime
clients since 1982"

Darrell C. Claytor, of Twinsburg, Ohio, is a registered representative for Securities America, Inc.

Formerly a resident of the Akron area, he completed the Master of Taxation graduate business program in 1982, at the University of Akron, and began his journey in the financial services business.

In 1985, Mr. Claytor earned the Certified Financial Planner designation from the College of Financial Planning.

Today, his practice is equipped with the latest tools of technology, plus the capable assistance of a client service representative, Lisa Clark, who has been a part of his team since 1991.

For Darrell, each client relationship is personalized. "Some clients desire to focus on an immediate financial need, while others request a comprehensive Personal Financial Analysis," he says.

"My goal is to assist you in achieving your financial goals and objectives."

"Providing lifetime financial services to lifetime clients" is more than a slogan. It is the principle that my practice is based upon."

Mr. Claytor presently serves over 550 families, plus a supplemental retirement plan for the cities of Akron, Ohio and Mayfield Heights, Ohio employees.

He states, "My practice specialty is to assist families with change of lifestyle issues such as retirement, death of a loved one, senior issues, recently married or divorced, and law suit settlements."

Mr. Darrell Claytor is married and the father of four children. He is currently a member of Werner United Methodist Church, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Claytor can be reached:
